

Remembering David Mashford (Musician)
(02.09.50 - 09.10.20.)

Leader of Silver and Gold Country Dance band for 40 years, Dave will be very much missed by his many friends and associates, some of whom he has known since his Cornish Youth Team days in the 1960's.

Dave lived in Millbrook, on the Cornish side of the Devon/Cornwall border, all his life, apart from a short spell in Grenada in his teens. However, once Silver and Gold became popular, he probably spent the majority of his time playing on the Devon side of the border. He played for social folk dance events (often fund raisers and family celebrations), Folk Dance Club dances, Folk Festivals at home and abroad and for the Devon based display team ISCA in the late 1970's and early 1980's.

Throughout he has played by himself or within other groupings of musicians, (occasionally on the piano) and even recently continued to be in demand to provide his dependable, lively music for dancers whenever asked; sometimes by his friends from his youth team days who are now callers themselves!
